COUNTRY INN

Port Elgin, New Brunswick, Canada

Welcome to Little Shemogue

For centuries, Canada Geese have flocked to the safe haven of Shemogue Harbour. The nearby fields and marshlands provided nourishment for these weary migrants; hence the name Chimougoui, which is Micmac for good feed for geese.

Today, the Little Shemogue Country Inn continues the tradition of catering to hungry travellers seeking a respite for the soul. Since 1993, owners Petra and Klaus Sudbrack have hosted visitors from North America and Europe to their historic country inn.

Each guest is treated with grace and hospitality in the time-honoured Maritime tradition, and in the language of their choice — English, German or French.

Do whatever you like!

Nestled in a secluded cove of Shemogue Harbour, the Inn offers relaxing outdoor activities. A short walk takes you down to the private beach for sunbathing, swimming or canoeing in the warm waters of the Northumberland Strait. We'll arrange fishing, biking and birdwatching expeditions for you. And you can choose from 12 golf courses within an hour's drive!

Relax in luxury

This elegant country inn contains five spacious suites, each with a full private bath and furnished in early Canadian and European antiques. The annex contains four large rooms featuring a private bath and whirlpool. Each room provides ample storage space especially designed for families or for travellers on an extended stay. The main floor common area boasts a spectacular view and a rustic fireplace.

Gourmet meals with flair!

Renowned by international chefs, our sumptuous five-course meals are prepared daily by Petra. Visitors from cosmopolitan centres around the world have become regular customers, thanks to her culinary delights. The menu includes everything from escargot soup to Petra's famous chicken breasts featured in the New Flavours Cookbook.

Meandering through three charming rooms, the dining areas create an intimate, relaxed atmosphere. The dining room offers a complete bar service and a fine selection of wines and liqueurs. Fresh seafood arrives daily. And there are always gourmet surprises in store for those with adventurous tastes!
